

Latino Cultural Arts Center

Latino Cultural Arts Center
Strategic Partnerships Manager
Job Description

About the LCAC

The LCAC is a grass-roots cultural art center that was born from a community-engaged research project. We leverage social impact with economic empowerment to the benefit of artists, educators, youth, & families. Our programs & partnerships span environmental stewardship, mental wellness, & workforce development.

About Las Bodegas

Las Bodegas (Spanish for warehouses) will be a catalyst that empowers the next generation of storytellers & creators, while contributing to growing and important sectors in Colorado's economy. The space will be powered by electricity (not gas) & consist of two artist studios, a multimedia lab, four flexible classrooms, & a café. The 10,000 sq.ft. space will wield art & research to transform the way we think about cultural development & economic empowerment.

About this New Position

The Strategic Partnerships Manager (SPM) will work closely with the Executive Director to prepare for the launch of Las Bodegas in 2024.

They will foster partnerships among the LCAC, artists, educators, community-based organizations, & the business community. They will implement the LCAC programs by leveraging ideas about social impact & relationships across the city, state, & internationally. The SPM will support the LCAC's networks across disciplines & sectors, including digital & visual arts, music, & performance, along with partners in mental health, workforce development, & environmental stewardship.
